

BYRON GANGNES, PhD

Prof Emeritus & UHERO Sr Research Fellow, University of Hawaii

Professional speaking about economic prospects and challenges

Byron provides expert insights into the US and global economies, emerging trends, and industry implications. His talks are dynamic and accessible, with vital information participants can readily apply.

Meet Byron Gangnes

Byron speaks on US & global economic prospects and pressing policy challenges. His unique take on the economic landscape is informed by broad research expertise in macro and international economics, and extensive experience forecasting and analyzing national and regional economies.

"Byron's insights don't just make the material understandable—they empower credit union leaders with the knowledge to make strategic decisions that drive their organizations forward. A truly fantastic speaker."

—Tony Ferris, CEO of Rochdale

Featured presentations

- From peril to promise | Understanding today's economy in order to thrive tomorrow.
- Immigration economics | The real impacts beyond the politics.

Other topics are available, including Stagflation, the Graying Economy, Federal Deficits & Debt and more.

"I would highly recommend Byron for any event seeking a knowledgeable and dynamic speaker on economic matters."

—Michael Caughlan, President/CEO
McKeany-Flavell Company, Inc.

Qualifications

- Broad experience speaking to business & other policy leaders
- Award-winning teacher
- Author of more than 30 articles & books
- United Nations forecaster
- University of Pennsylvania PhD

Who will benefit from Byron's insights?

- General conference audiences
- Business and financial industry professionals
- Trade association members
- Corporate or organization workshop participants

"I talk about the economy in a way that your audience will enjoy and understand clearly. They will leave with knowledge they can use, and with greater confidence to digest new economic information that comes their way."

—Byron Gangnes

 Top Voice

Member National Speakers Association

Wellness Productions Co. Recommended